JAPANESE WHISKEY

Must be made in Japan.

Mash bill must use malted grains.

Aged for at least three years in Japan.

Water used for production must be extracted in Japan.

Must be bottled at no less than 80 proof.

Many Japanese whiskeys have flavors similar to Scotch, this is because the first distilleries to make whiskey in Japan utilized Scotch production practices, mash bills, & even Scottish Coffey stills.

GIN & AQUAVIT

Gin is a beloved bartender staple here at Copper Spoon, demonstrated in the over 50 bottles we carry at any given time.

While all gin derives it's main characteristic flavor from juniper berries, you'll find bottles here who allow other herbs, florals, or citrus to shine.

No matter your preference, there's a gin here for everyone.

AGAVE

We've made a choice to compose our agave selection of brands that are ethically sourced, additive free, & produced exclusively in Mexico.

The first two pages, mostly composed of Mezcal, also includes Sotol & Raicilla.

All reflections of the unique plant of origin that you'll find listed next to them.

The third page is composed entirely of Tequila, exclusively made of blue Weber agave in one of five regulated Mexican states.

WINE

Last, but never least, our wine by the bottle selection.

Some wines will have familiar names and varietals, others come from smaller producers that have found a way to stand out next to even the biggest brands.

Big or small, we've got you covered.
